The borders were closed and the region isolated from the rest of the world. Despite an extraordinary transformation of tourism in the area since, Eastern Europe remains under-explored in tourism studies. This book fills the gap by outlining contemporary strategies for tourism development in post-socialist countries, considering the opportunities and challenges as well as the initiatives and approaches to sustainability. Illuminating the various economic, socio-cultural and environmental impacts that tourism has created, this book is a valuable reference for researchers and students of tourism and related disciplines, as well as anyone interested in the development of Eastern Europe. The Rough Guide to Croatia is the most comprehensive handbook to this spectacular destination. A 24 page full-colour section introduces Croatia's highlights, from the medieval city of Dubrovnik to the beaches of the Dalmatian coast. Throughout, there are discerning reviews of all the best places to stay, eat and drink - to suit any pocket. Finally, the Contexts section provides an authoritative background on Croatia's history, politics and culture. These great-value guides cover destinations far and wide around the globe. Established in 1990, Nelles Guides sought to provide travelers with comprehensive destination coverage in a handy, take-along format. Today, the tradition continues. Nelles Guides are researched and written by local correspondents and are updated regularly. Each book has a well-rounded introduction that delves into the country's history and culture, tempting the reader to explore. The "What to See & Do" section for each area can cover anything from sightseeing and driving tours to jungle treks and visits to the local museums. You'll find detailed entries for restaurants, shopping, entertainment, festivals and more. All accommodations are categorized by price level, making it easy for the reader to select a place to suit his/her budget. Practical travel issues -- health concerns, climate & clothing, visa requirements, currency, transportation, etc. -- are also addressed. The Rough Guide to Europe on a Budget is the ultimate guide to exploring this fascinating continent on a shoestring, with coverage of all the top sights, the clearest mapping of any guide and handy hints on how to save money. With up-to-date descriptions of the best hostels and budget hotels, bars, cafés and cheap restaurants, plus European shopping and festivals, this guide is the budget-conscious traveller's must-have item for European trips. Make the most of your trip to Europe with The Rough Guide to Europe on a Budget. Now available in ePub format. In publication for over thirty years, Adriatic Pilot remains the only single volume to cover the whole region, from Albania and the heel of Italy in the south to Venice and Slovenia in the north. The ever-popular cruising ground of Croatia is covered extensively in four separate chapters. This 8th edition has been fully revised to include new information on marinas, visitor moorings and anchorages, with all the attendant facilities available to cruising sailors. There is also plenty to give historical context and to whet the appetite for visits and exploration ashore. Plans have been updated throughout. Numerous photographs help to orientate, inform and inspire, including a new set of images for the Italian coast and Venice lagoon. For occasional charterers or long-term cruisers alike, Trevor and Dinah Thompson's thorough and comprehensive work should be the first choice of any cruising sailor wanting to make the most of this rich and diverse coastline. This guidebook describes 30 walks on the islands of the Croatian Adriatic. 14 islands are covered and the walks can all be completed within a day. Routes range from 2-19.5 km and are almost all easy, with no technical difficulties or scrambling. The walks are arranged from north to south starting in the region of Kvarner (including Krk, Rab, Cres and Losinj), then covering northern Dalmatian coast (including Pag, Ugljan and Dugi otok), Central Dalmatia (including Brac, Hvar and Vis) and Southern Dalmatia (including Korcula, Lastovo and Mljet). There are regular ferry services to all 14 islands in the guide, and there are bus services to all but 3 of the walks described. It includes extensive background information on history, language and culture, as well as a comprehensive section on wildlife and plants, detailed information about public transport

*(including ferry routes), and essential information on two gateway cities to the islands, Zadar and Split, providing you with all the practical details you need to explore these islands more fully. Kroatien ist ein Land der Inseln. Mehr als tausend sind es, die der über 1.700 km langen Festlandküste der Adria vorgelagert sind. Sie alle bergen eine lange Kulturgeschichte, bestechen mit einem glasklaren, türkis leuchtenden und buchtenreichen Meer, einer duftenden, von Heilkräutern überzogenen Landschaft und beeindruckenden Naturdenkmälern. Zum Schutz dieser imposanten Natur wurden viele Inseln und Küstengebirge zu Nationalparks oder Naturparks ausgewiesen, die man auf markierten Wegen erkunden kann. Viele der Inseln sind seit Urzeiten besiedelt und ihre malerischen Städtchen liegen meist auf Halbinseln und haben sich im europäischen Tourismus längst einen Namen gemacht. Darunter das viertürmige, mittelalterlich geprägte Rab, die Frankopanenhochburg Krk oder die von mildem Klima gesegnete Lavendelinsel Hvar. Ähnlich eindrucksvoll ist z. B. Korčula, wo Marco Polo geboren sein soll, oder die Odysseus-Insel Mljet mit ihren Salzseen. Ob Kelten, Griechen, Römer, Venezianer oder Habsburger - sie alle hinterließen ihre Spuren, denen man auf Schritt und Tritt ebenso in den großen Hafenstädten am Festland begegnet: Rijeka, Zadar, Trogir, Split oder Dubrovnik sind so etwas belebte und sehr charmante Freilichtmuseen. Fazit: Auf knapp 800 Seiten verrät Lore Marr-Bieger - sie bereist die Gegend seit 40 Jahren! - ihre schönsten und spannendsten Detailinformationen. This book presents the original scientific manuscripts submitted for publication at the International Conference The Science and Development of Transport (ZIRP 2021), organized by the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Transport and Traffic Sciences, Zagreb, Croatia. The Conference takes place in Šibenik, Croatia, from September 30th until October 1st, 2021, aiming to bring together the scientists and the practitioners by putting forward innovative solutions available to everyone.
